

LOCAL AND PERSONAL. THE EBENSBURG POST-OFFICE IS REMOVED TO THE BUILDING ONE DOOR EAST OF THOMPSON'S "MOUNTAIN HOUSE."

We are informed that a MILITARY COMPANY will be formed in this borough on next Friday evening, 19th inst. The Government calls for volunteers—let the "Frosty Sons" respond.

LOCAL FETTERINGS.—Unpleasant—the weather. A ten barrel oil well was opened in Westmoreland county recently.

Snow to the depth of three inches fell here on Tuesday. Wm. Groves, Jr., of Hollidaysburg, a soldier of the Mexican War, died at that place a short time since.

Beatty's station, on the Pennsylvania Railroad, six miles east of Greensburg, was totally destroyed by fire last week.

Rich, rare and racy—the lecture and public meeting at the town hall on Monday evening.

George Raymond, editor of the Hollidaysburg Whig, has been appointed Consul resident at Singapore, British India. This is authentic.

The recent heavy rains have doubtless enabled our friends, the raftsmen, to start down the river. A large amount of timber was "got out" in the Northern portion of the county this winter.

The Hollidaysburg Fencibles, the Altoona Rifles, the Altoona Guards, and the Juniata Rifles, of Blair county, have tendered their services to Gov. Curtin, under the call of the President, and have been accepted.

George W. N. Bolsinger, our former partner in the publishing of this paper, has enlisted in one of the Pittsburg military companies, and intends to do service in the struggle between Union and Disunion. Good for George!

A panorama of the Pilgrim's Progress was exhibited at the town hall on Friday and Saturday evenings. Those who had the pleasure of being present unite in saying that it was a grand affair, and well worthy of public patronage. It was well attended.

Shout out, ye sanctimonious! Make a noise, oh everybody! And then give ear unto the Holl. Register: "The Methodists of Ebensburg are doubtless a very good people, but they are to have a Show in their church every week or so throughout the year!" Ah!

Awful—the weather for the past week. Rain, hail, snow, and mud have been the ruling features during that period, with no prospect at present of a change in the programme. Pope says there is no such season as Spring—and Pope was a gentleman of veracity, and knew whereof he affirmed.

On our outside this week we publish a beautiful piece of original poetry, entitled "The Homestead Sold." The sentiment contained in it is one that will find a responsive echo in many hearts—especially as this is near the first of April, when buying and selling of homesteads do most occur. Catalpa has poetic merits of a high order, and we hope she will favor us with many more of her effusions.

A bill has passed the Legislature dividing the borough of Ebensburg into two wards. The East Ward comprises all of said borough east of Centre street; elections for which to be held in the Court House. The West Ward comprises all of the borough west of Centre street; elections to be held in the Town Hall. The East Ward is strongly Republican; the West Ward is Democratic.

A somewhat celebrated personage of this locality, named Dr. Gustavus Victor Teidemann, died at the County Poor House, on last Saturday. The Doctor was at one time Court Physician to the King of Hanover. Owing to reverses, he came to this country some years since, and ultimately settled down to the practice of his profession in Carrollton, this county. Becoming sick and destitute, however, he was removed to the Poor House a few weeks ago, where he shuffled off his mortal coil and departed for the unseen world. The Doctor was well known in this community. He was singular and eccentric in his walk and conversation. Among other strange notions, he contended that he was "a legitimate son of the great Napoleon." Whether this latter declaration be a true bill or only the vagary of a mind diseased we are of course unable to say. Peace to his ashes!

JOHNSTOWN IN A BLAZE OF EXCITEMENT!—April 16: The day has been one of intense excitement here. Flags are flying, drums beating, and our citizen soldiers are preparing to leave for the scene of battle. Two full companies will leave to-morrow evening, and a third on Thursday. They embrace many of our best citizens. The feeling is universal now that the blow has been first given by the South, and that the Government must be sustained. A mass meeting will be held to-morrow.

[JAMES S. CLARK, DEC'D.—On the death of the above gentleman being made public, special meetings were called by the A. Y. M. and the S. of T., of which societies the deceased was a member, and the following resolutions were adopted:]

At a special communication of Summit Lodge, No. 312, A. Y. M., held at Mason's Hall, Ebensburg, April 9th, A. L. 5861, the death of Bro. James S. Clark being announced, the following Preamble and Resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That in the Providence of God, who has taken our beloved Brother, James S. Clark, from our midst, to the rest prepared for the just and good above, we, of the whole Masonic family, have been called upon to part with one, who, by his uniform and wise acts, was entitled to a high position in our Councils, and was endeared to each one of us personally.

Resolved, That in his untiring efforts to advance a knowledge of the wisdom contained in the Ancient and Accepted Rite, he nobly battled against prejudice, yet by his uniform kind manner he was respected and esteemed by all.

Resolved, That as a faithful token of our esteem and remembrance, we will clothe our Lodge Room in mourning for the space of sixty days.

Resolved, That a copy of the above Resolutions be handed to the family of our departed Brother, and that they be published in the papers of this place.

At a meeting of Highland Division, No. 84, S. of T., held April 9th, 1861, the undersigned were appointed a committee to draft resolutions expressive of the feelings of the Division, on the death of Bro. James S. Clark:

Resolved, That in the Providence of God, who has pleased God in His Providence to remove from our midst our beloved Bro. Jas. S. Clark, we cannot permit the sorrowful circumstance to pass, without paying to his memory a tribute of respect, therefore, Resolved, That in the death of Bro. Clark we have lost an esteemed member; Temperance, a warm and consistent advocate; Society, an honest man, and his family, an affectionate husband and a devoted father.

Resolved, That we extend to the afflicted family of the deceased our sympathy, with the assurance that our long and intimate acquaintance justifies the belief that he is now in His presence, which is better than life.

Resolved, That in remembrance of our departed Brother, the Division room be clothed in mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be given to the family of our deceased Brother, and published in the papers of this place.

"MURDER WILL OUT!"—STARTLING DEVELOPMENTS!—The Echo says that the people of Johnstown are considerably excited in consequence of some revelations having lately been made concerning an almost forgotten murder that was perpetrated years ago at the Buckhorn Tavern, Summerhill township, this county. The victim was a pedler. He put up at the tavern one night, and was never seen or heard of afterward—neither could any trace of his murderers be discovered. It is now stated that a fellow lately discharged from the Western Penitentiary, after returning to his home in this county, disclosed the secret of the murder to an old comrade, who got on a spree and "let the cat out of the bag." From his statement it seems that some four or five persons were engaged in the atrocious act, the discharged convict being among the number. The story goes that the pedlar was killed at a late hour of the night, long after he had retired to bed; that after he had been murdered and the money taken from his person, (which amounted to some two or three hundred dollars,) the remains of the victim and the entire bed were conveyed to a deep, dark ravine some distance from the tavern, and there concealed. Search is now being made in that locality for the purpose, if possible, of discovering some vestige of the dead body of the pedler or remnants of the bed. The penitentiary bird, alarmed at the revelations made, has fled for parts unknown.

Agents wanted to sell the Erie Sewing Machine. We will give a commission or pay wages at from $25 to $60 per month, and expenses paid. The Erie is a new machine and very simple in its construction. A diploma was awarded our Machine by the Industrial Association of Farmers and Mechanics, held at Chambersburg, Pa., at its exhibition in 1860, over the Grover & Baker, and Boudoir Machines. It is equal to any machine in use, and the price is but fifteen dollars. Address: R. JAMES, General Agent E. S. M. Co., Milan, Ohio [Mar. 14]

LETTER FROM OILIANA. OILIANA, April 16, 1861. To the Editor of The Alleghenian:

Ebensburg is done for. Emphatically. And no mistake. It is—I mean, it will be, knocked higher 'n a kite. Your town will soon be nowhere, nor no place else. In the language of Chaucer, it will be

"Stript of its glory, And left to perishes, As ye butterfly demyeth Affyr trod upon by superior weighte, And squashede."

We're ahead. We are. We're slightly in advance—beyond—in the van—ahead. I feel mortified and delirious. I'll tell you why.

We are going to have the county seat of Cambria county removed to Oiliana!! I read in the Mountain Era last week as follows:

"It is a fact acknowledged by all that a more corrupt set of demagogues never wintered at Harrisburg than the present mis-representatives of the people."

Whereupon, I immediately got up a meeting. We met—we raised $10,000,000—we parted. And you can guess the rest. I may state that I was President of the meeting. In consequence of which, I intend to put things through with a looseness. I can do it.

In a few weeks you may expect to address me so: CALEB SMITH, Esq., OILIANA, CAPITAL OF CAMBRIA CO., PENNA.

Yes—as the author of the Editorial Verbiages once jocosely remarked, "Ye kin fence up yer town of Ebensburg and whitewash it" forthwith. And that's a fact.

I repeat it, I am high. Besides, I have several eligible town lots for sale: one of which would be a splendid site for the Court House.

[Do you think that Mountainous Era is posted with regard to those mis-representatives? Couldn't it, under certain circumstances, pile on the talk too thick? And isn't it possible that it differs from the political views of the majority of the mis-representatives? I tremble when I think that this, or these, might easily be the case, or cases.]

I had a big notion to apply for an office under the new Adm. Since I have got on so well with my oil, however, I have given up the phantasy. Bayadere is out for Consul to Ski Hi. He left for Washington yesterday. He wanted me to go with him and apply for something; but I wouldn't do it. Says I, "B., my boy, you may be an applicant, if you wish: as for me, I will remain an appliwo't."

And as Bunyan says, I saw him no more. But, in the chaste and vigorous language of Mor D. Kay, I must dry up for the present. Think of me often. —Thine, indeed, CALEB SMITH.

DO YOU WANT WHISKERS? DO YOU WANT WHISKERS? DO YOU WANT A MUSTACHE? DO YOU WANT A MUSTACHE?

BELLINGHAM'S CELEBRATED Stimulating Oguent, FOR THE WHISKERS AND HAIR.

The subscribers take pleasure in announcing to the citizens of the United States that they have obtained the agency for, and are now enabled to offer to the American public, the above justly celebrated and world-renowned article.

WHISKERS OR A MUSTACHE. This article is the only one of the kind used by the French, and in London and Paris it is in universal use. It is a beautiful, economical, soothing, yet stimulating compound, acting as if by magic upon the roots, causing a beautiful growth of luxuriant hair. If applied to the scalp, it will cure baldness, and cause to spring up in place of the bald spots a fine growth of new hair. Applied according to directions, it will turn red or towy hair dark, and restore gray hair to its original color, leaving it soft, smooth and flexible. The "Oguent" is an indispensable article in every gentleman's toilet, and after one week's use they would not for any consideration be without it.

The subscribers are the only Agents for the article in the United States, to whom all orders must be addressed. Price One Dollar a box—for sale by all Druggists and Dealers; or a box of the "Oguent" (warranted to have the desired effect) will be sent to any who desire it, by mail, (direct), securely packed, on receipt of price and postage, $1.18. Apply to or address HORACE L. HEGEMAN & CO., Druggists, &c., 24 William street, New York. March 21, 1861-6m

D. J. EVANS & SON, Ebensburg, Feb. 28, 1861.

WITMER'S BRIDGE. Lancaster Tn, July 30, 1860. Messrs. EVANS AND WATSON: GENTLEMEN—The small size No. 1 Salamander safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam R. Barr, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1858, has been subjected to a very severe test, which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This safe, containing all my books, together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and friends, and representing a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill which was destroyed on the night of the 27th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. This fact was, however, to many bystanders a better recommendation of your Safes than could be expressed in any other words from me. Yours Respectfully, SAMUEL RANCK.

A large assortment of the above quality of Fire and Thief Proof Safes always on hand and for sale at as low rates as any other firm, at EVANS & WATSON'S, No. 304 Chestnut st., Philadelphia.
